

The Myth of German Villainy

Benton Bradberry

This is a thought-provoking book, a history written from the loser's point of view
Its topic is at least threefold: the Germans themselves, the Jews, and the Soviet Union.

The author presents an incredible number of statistics: ethnic percentages of populations, numbers killed in this or that event, popular opinion. Though he presents a thorough bibliography, footnotes tying these statistics to sources would have been useful. He likewise cites a number of instances of butchery committed against Gentiles in particular and Germans specifically by Jews, then Soviets. Many of his accounts, such as the Ukrainian Holodomor, corroborate well with other histories. When, as in the case of the Holodomor, the actual numbers fall in a range, he chooses the number that would make the strongest case.

History is written by the winners, and most of the scribes of 20th century history seem to have been Jewish. This book presents a case that is quite at odds with the standard version. It is well-done, and well worth reading. I would conclude that history does not unravel the way it is usually presented, as a morality play with the United States and world Jewry as the heroes, but rather as an evolutionary process. Bradberry often cites evolutionary psychologist Kevin MacDonald in his explanation of Jewish motives in founding the Soviet Union and in taking down Germany. Among the facts that emerge is that Solzhenitsyn's last book, "Two Hundred Years Together," has never been translated out of Russian [emended - into English. Per comments below, it is available in French]. The reason is obvious to Bradberry: Jews control the publishing industry, and they do not want it to appear. I have made the same observation about a few other foreign language books I have reviewed, among them [[ASIN:B003S8U6HS Historia Da Escravidão]], [[ASIN:2738408931 Et si l'Afrique refusait le developpement?]], [[ASIN:B009S2LKLY La France Orange Mécanique]] and [[ASIN:3421044309 Deutschland schafft sich ab]]. It turns out that about 60% of [[ASIN:5969707023 Two Hundred Years Together]] has been informally translated and is available on the web. The original Russian is likewise available. Forbidden fruit is always sweeter – look for a review before too long.

That concludes this review by a latecomer. I include below some of the quotes I found especially insightful.

"A joke making the rounds at the time was that the Jewish national anthem ought to be 'Onward Christian Soldiers.'"

"The Jew, Martin Latsis, chief of the Ukrainian Cheka, explained in the newspaper, 'Red Terror': 'We are engaged in exterminating the bourgeoisie as a class. Do not look in the file of incriminating evidence to see whether or not the accused rose up against the Soviets with arms or words. Ask him instead to which class he belongs, what is his background, his education, his profession. These are the questions that will determine the fate of the accused. That is the meaning and essence of the Red Terror.'"

"But unlike the WASP elite whom they have displaced, the Jews have become what Professor Kevin McDonald, in his trilogy of books on Jewish culture, calls a 'hostile elite.' The old WASP elite never lost its sense of noblesse oblige towards the ordinary people of America. They were, after all, of the same religion and of the same ethnic origin, and they felt a sense of responsibility for the general welfare of all of their fellow citizens. Our new Jewish elite is different. They feel no identity with ordinary Americans, only contempt, and they concern themselves only with 'what is good for Jews.' "

"Not only does this new Jewish elite have no empathy for the traditional European majority in America, they actively work to undermine it. According to E. Michael Jones, in his book, 'The Jewish Revolutionary Spirit and Its Impact on World History,' 2008, Jews have been behind each and every one of the anti-white, anti-Christian movements in this country, especially since the early 1960s. The NAACP was founded by Jews. The Civil Rights movement was organized and promoted by Jews. So was the Sexual Revolution, the Hippy Movement, the Feminist Movement, the promotion of homosexual rights, same-sex marriage, the Separation-of-Church-and-State movement (an attack on Christianity), and especially the Multicultural movement. Most of the so-called 'folk singers' back in the 1960s and 70s were Jewish, and their 'folk music' invariably carried a message which was subversive to our traditional white European culture. "

"It was the Jews who managed to change our immigration law in 1965 (Known as the Hart-Celler Act. Hart and Celler were both Jews.) which then opened our doors to swarms of non-white, non-Christian immigrants. This new immigration policy has quite literally doomed the traditional America we knew. It has been projected that the white majority of the United States will be reduced to minority status within two or three decades. This demographic shift will completely change the character of this country, and not for the better. Moreover, the Jews have done precisely the same to Europe, so that the demographics of Europe are being drastically changed also. It is deemed that undermining controlling majorities and promoting multi-culturalism is 'good for Jews.' It's the old game of 'divide and conquer.' While all the different ethnic and religious groups now resident in the United States are squabbling among ourselves, our new Jewish elite uses its power to promote the interests of Israel and International Jewry."

"At the beginning of the twentieth century, the white race dominated the world. The First World War dealt Western Civilization a deadly blow, though Europe might have recovered from that. But today, 70 years after the devastating Second World War, a war which could easily have been avoided, the white European race faces the danger of eventual extinction. Its birth rate now hovers below the population maintenance level, while hoards of non-white, non-Christian immigrants swarm in from all sides -- both in Europe and the United States -- polluting, diluting, factionalizing, and Balkanizing our once homogeneous populations, to the point that the process is now irreversible. If 'Demographics is destiny,' as they say, then the destiny of the West is in decline, while the fortunes of International Jewry are in the ascendancy. They now control everything. The so-called 'good' war has resulted in a very 'bad' end for the West. Even Churchill eventually recognized the great error of Britain and the United States in siding with the Soviet Union against Germany. In a speech long after the war, he said, 'We slaughtered the wrong pig.'" [Per comments, some debate the attribution to Churchill]
